HOTEL LA FONTAINE -- This prestigious former hotel, individually listed on the National Register of Historic Places, was designed by architect Robert W. Stevens and constructed in 1925. During its heyday it hosted many famous guests. Today it is a senior living center. The Colonial-Revival building was noted for its advanced construction methods as well as its design, which was enhanced by the use of multi-paned windows and decorative entablature. Stone shell and scroll motifs crown the parapet.
